WHEN

When you stand your own ground,
know the ground that you stand on.
When you're raising your voice,
find the right song to sing.
When you leap in the dark,
know which foot you will land on.
When you beat your own drum,
make the emptiness ring.

When you know what you want,
don't stop wanting or knowing,
When you turn a new leaf,
leave the old leaves behind.
When you're chasing a dream,
know the road the dream's going.
When your eye's on the prize,
prize the breadth of your mind.

When you're leading the pack,
check the others aren't cruising.
When you're biding your time,
make sure time's on your team.
When you're frightened of loss,
know that all fear is losing.
As your days passed you by,
were they real or a dream?
